

PRIVATE HOUSE, DARTMOUTH

This is an architectural jewel situated on the medieval route into Dartmouth. The facade is dated 1629 with exquisite carvings. The house has now been completely renovated to a standard of exceptional quality. A blend of old and new balances historic features with contemporary design to provide visual interest and great comfort. The contemporary interior is kept simple and effective with quality materials including Bespoke Maple, sisal, glass, stone and aluminium furniture and fittings from Italy, France, Sweden, Germany and England. The emphasis is on quality, comfort and convenience.
