

REPLACEMENT DWELLING, ULLENHALL

The entrance and centre of the house is a grand Hall of three storeys and from which all the rooms radiate like the wings of a butterfly captivating magnificent 360 degrees views of Warwickshire Countryside. Due to the plan orientation each room enjoys a different aspect and all areas of the house enjoy the benefits of an excellent solar orientation. The Hall in particular has a ridge rooflight which continues to an attic balcony which is part of a second storey suite of rooms. The exterior is a composition of redbrickwork with render and stone features.
